Letter from the author

Get Up was written to open our understanding to identifying and overcoming the common lies we tell ourselves as individuals when it comes to why we fail. It reveals why we often failed in taking actions expected of us at a particular time and on certain crucial issues of life. In this book you will learn the meaning of the word get up, those who need to get up, what can resist a man to get up and what we must do to get up and accomplish our vision or goals in life. As you read on, may the Lord give you divine understanding in the name of Jesus. Amen. I congratulate you once again.

This publication is an eye opener to those who want to achieve better success and breakthroughs in their lives than before. In this book, you will learn some of the things that can keep a man in a spot and how to overcome such limiting attitudes and opposing powers. In Proverbs 6 verses 6-11 the Bible says 6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: 7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, 8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest. 9 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? 10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: 11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man."

This passage is referring the sluggard to take lessons on diligence from the ant. The ants have neither instructors nor leaders nor guides, but they work hard to achieve their goals than some human beings that have leaders. The ants, from time immemorial, are constantly able to achieve success in their daily living as a result of their well-built sense of organisation; diligence and self-discipline that make them stand out among lower animals. Without leaders and guides, they know when to hide from dangers, when to come out of their homes to gather foods, and what type of food to gather and eat.

Get up

Also, they know how to build; where to live, how to repair and maintain their homes. Without cement, they know how to build strong houses that rain, storms and humans cannot easily destroy. To destroy a typical ant hill requires the use of machinery at times.

The ants live in a colony; they are well organised and practised division of labour, ensuring that an army of ants is categorised into various departments. Each department is assigned specific function, which is implemented without any supervision. They stick together, fight together and overcome together. When a group of ants spot opportunities, within a short time the whole colony is informed. The ants are dynamic insects from which brethren could learn success attitudes such as discipline, diligence, planning, commitment, determination, focus, perseverance and taking action without procrastination, if they need to prosper in life.

Critical lessons human beings can learn from ants

Ants are strong and hardworking insects that are capable of carrying objects that are 50 times bigger than their body weight and size with their mandibles.

Ants have high sense of security; the soldier ants use their heads to block the entrances to their nests to prevent intruders from gaining access. When worker ants return from work to the nest, they touch the soldier ants' heads to enable the guards identify they belong to the colony.

Certain group of ants protect particular plants for the purpose of food and shelter. Ants protect plants that have natural hollows where they can take shelter, breed and feed on sugary plant secretions.

Ants tend insects of other species such as aphids or leafhoppers to get regular supply of sugary secretions called honeydew. For ants to increase the production of honeydew, a group of worker ants help aphids by carrying the soft-bodied insects from plant to plant.

Get up

Ants practice slavery or forced labour by keeping other ants captive and making them work regularly for the colony. The Polyergus queens hunt for Formica queens to help them rear their own brood to ensure a steady supply of Formica slave workers. While slavery is unethical, brethren can put this idea into positive use by striving to create jobs and employing other people to work for them while paying them salaries.

Ants began to practice farming, hunting and gathering long before human beings. It was revealed that fungus farming ants had been practising agricultural ventures about 50 million years ago before human beings began to raise their own crops.

Ants are creative, innovative and intelligent. They developed sophisticated horticultural techniques to boost the production of fruits, vegetables and flowers. They secrete chemicals to produce antibiotic properties used to prevent mold growth. They create a unique method of fertilization by using manure.

Ants have long practiced the development of a system community or society before man. They create super-colonies comprising massive communities of ants which may stretch over tens of miles.

Ants have excellent sense of smell by following scent (pheromones) trails laid by a group of scout ants whose task is to forage for food. Also, ants detest waste and they have skills to store food efficiently.

Get up

The word “get up” means

Drawing from the peculiar and useful nature of the ants, I want us now to explore how man could benefit from the ants. First, unlike the ant, the slothful man according to Proverbs 26 verse 13

The slothful man saith, there is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. Also in Proverbs 22 verse 13

The slothful man saith, there is a lion without; I shall be slain in the streets.

2 Thessalonians 3 verses 6- 15

Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: 9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their bread.

Brethren, getting up like ants daily and putting your hands to work, business, study, ministry, charity, evangelism is a starting catalyst for you to be fulfilled. Therefore, you have no excuse other than for you to get up, draw a plan to achieve success in business, study, career, ministry, charity and others. Hear this, achievement is not a matter of luck but directly proportional to your applied effort and God's support. I want you to read and study the meaning of get up as listed below and see if they could be of help to you.

Who must get up?

Those who should get up and take positive actions are brethren that are always complaining; those who are always giving excuses for their failures. Also, brethren who should get up are those who are in a spot and not making progress to accomplish their goals like the man at the Pool of Bethesda. In John 5 verses 6-9 “When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time, in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? 7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. 8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. 9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath”.

According to the scripture above, the man had an infirmity for thirty-eight years. When Jesus asked him, “Would you like to be made whole?” He started giving Jesus excuses. He gave excuse about how he had no one to help him when the angel stirred the water. He complained about how he had been abandoned by all and how the environment had become unfriendly to him. He also gave excuse about how he would have loved to do something tangible with his life but his disability had hindered him.

Another category of those who must get up are those slacking in their works. These people comprise those who are never be zealous to accomplish any task given to them at the workplace, the school, the community and the Church. They are the type of believers described in Matthew 25 verses 24-26 “Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. 26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed”. This category of believers take things for granted, they are not motivated and not challenged by golden opportunities. They are brethren who are not inspired to enhance their social statuses, skills, educational qualifications or business enterprises. Also, they are those who are too lazy to take risk. They waste the resources and God-given talents committed into their hands due to their slothfulness.

Another set of brethren that should get up are the get-rich-quick believers. They go to the Church, quote success scriptures that suit their lazy lifestyles but not willing to do anything apart from prayers. They forget that there is no shortcut to success. When Joseph was in the prison before he became the prime minister in Egypt, he was not a lazy man. Apart from holding on to God, he put his gifts of administration, dream interpretation and hard work to constant use. Therefore, hard work and use of his talents prepared him perfectly for the palace when the opportunity came knocking at his door. Also, Daniel made history in the land of Babylon due to diligence and hard work.

If you want to make history in your generation and become a reference point to the unborn generations, you need to get up and do the extraordinarily positive things that no one has ever done. You need to change your attitude about slothfulness.

Other categories of those that must get up are:-

- Those who are tired of been oppressed.
- Those who do not want to beg for bread or eat from the dustbin of life.

Get up

- Those who want to break away from family bondage.
- Those who are tired of sitting at the gate called Beautyfy.
- Those who want to break the circle of poverty.
- Those who desire to see what others could not see.
- Those who want to achieve what others could not achieve.
- Those who do not want to be slaves to their age mates.
 - Those tired of eating from hand to mouth
 - Those who are tired to sleeping and making no progress
 - Those who are heavy laden
 - Those who are always struggling with success

We must emulate our Saviour Jesus Christ and his apostles. Jesus Christ including his disciples and apostles were industrious people who combined prayers with hard work. Jesus said in Luke 2 verse 49, And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? In John 5 verse 36, Jesus added, But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

Apostle Paul exhorted Christians in 2 Thessalonians 3 verses 6-12, 6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: 9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. 11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. Apostle Paul went further in Ephesians 4 verse 28 with what many slothful brethren will not like to hear, Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Also, James 2:18 says, Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Hear this bitter truth. You cannot achieve your destiny with prayers only; you cannot achieve your destiny by folding your arms doing nothing. Destinies are fulfilled when a man or a woman receives a revelation, gets understanding of it through prayers, fasting or meditation and act upon it. Action is a combination of prayers and hard work for a diligent Christian to achieve success in life. This message can be understood using the illustration of man, who dreamt of building a home. He had the picture of a mansion in his head and drew the plan, but he failed to act by getting the sand and the cement to mould blocks, laying the foundation and setting the blocks. Taking action is what will bring the imaginary plan into reality. Action is what you need to get up and start working towards the actualization of your goals and dreams.

Get up

Biblical facts and truths confirmed that many migrants usually enhanced their statuses and became prosperous in their host societies than when they were in their own nations. Joseph became more prosperous in Egypt than when he was in Israel. Esther and Mordecai became more prosperous in a foreign land than when they were in Israel. Daniel and the three Hebrew men whose original Hebrew names were Hananiah (Shadrach), Mishael (Meshach) and Azariah (Abednego) displayed unusual divine wisdom and faith in God in the land of Babylon. They were made chief governors of the province of Babylon and became prominent than when they were in Judah. Nehemiah became the king's cupbearer in Shushan, Persia and he was later appointed the governor of Judah by King Artaxerxes of Persia. All these Hebrews had one thing in common; they were taken as slaves to the foreign lands. In spite of their unpleasant conditions, they refused to give excuses about their circumstance, but they rose beyond their adversities in the foreign lands. They enhanced their wisdom in God, sharpened their God-given talents and skills, set goals, prayed and took actions that made them successful in life.

Therefore, if you are immigrants in Ireland or in any country, brethren you have no excuse than to get up, set a vision and goals, pray and take action. These are all you need to change your status and make your life better than the time you came to this country. To remain in Ireland the same way you came here after ten years without enhancing your skills and talents either by acquiring additional qualifications or learning trades or developing small-scale business, is nothing but laziness and slothfulness. Dear brethren, stop procrastinating, stop giving excuses, stop wasting your time with ungodly teachings and believing lies from the pit of hell, saying you cannot make it in this country. Get up from your sleep and learn from the ants. Pray, set goals and take action now and you will be surprised what the Lord can do for you.

Get up

Barriers to getting up

It is the desire of many to get up, but many brethren failed to summon courage, determination and willpower to get up and act. In this paragraph, I shall be discussing the two major entities that can hinder a man from getting up. The first is “self or personal obstacles” while another is the “spiritual or invincible obstacles”. The sluggard says there is a lion outside. That is, the sluggard always sees imaginary obstacles on his ways. Let us discuss the personal obstacles to get up.

Personal obstacles

The greatest enemy of man is himself; you could stop yourself from succeeding or achieving your dreams by your attitude of laziness, bad thoughts, inaction, negative actions and beliefs. Proverbs 6 verse 9-11 “How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? 10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: 11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man”.

Based on the scriptural truth above, laziness, sleep and folding of hands doing nothing, breed poverty. The ants avoid laziness, sleep and folding of hands; therefore, you can do so brethren.

Get up

Other obstacles are:-

- Wrong teachings.
- Keeping wrong company.
- Lack of motivation, zeal and drive.
- Inability to identify goals.
- Complacency and procrastination.
- Wasteful spending and buying things that are not needed
- Loving pleasure more than work.
- Misuse of time talking on the phone and spending several hours watching TV programmes, movies, video play, browsing Facebook and others social media daily.
- Copying others.
- Using precious money that could start up small scale businesses to buy expensive trinkets, shoes, clothes, alcohol, organise parties, phones and travel around the world.

Please do not take my advice out of context. The social media and the internet are good sources that brethren can explore to do business and earn legitimate income. But when they are used solely for pleasure and entertainment, they constitute agents of time-wasting. Also, it is not a sin to buy shoes, clothes, latest mobile phones, organise parties or travel on holidays. However, you will be amazed to note that the money you waste on buying these items, which you might consider too small to start a small-scale business, was more than what Jack Cohen used to establish Tesco plc in 1919.

Get up

Spiritual obstacles

While the personal obstacles are man-made, the spiritual obstacles are caused by the invisible forces of darkness in high places. That is why the Bible says in Ephesians 6 verse 12 that, We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

1 Corinthians 16 verse 9 “ For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries”. I want you to understand this basic truth of life that there will always be powers stationed at the door of your breakthroughs with the aim of denying you access to them. Many believers ask this intriguing question: Why is it that anytime I am about to get a breakthrough something unexplainable always happened that will suddenly terminate it? They are called the spiritual or invisible obstacles. I want you to pray like this: All invisible powers waiting at the door of my breakthrough die in the name of Jesus.

Other spiritual causes are discussed below to enhance your understanding about satanic obstacles to blessing, breakthrough, progress and success.

Curses and spells: As a matter of fact, you could lose out in a spiritual battle or be pressed down from getting up by the great invisible forces called curses and spells. A curse is a solemn utterance, prayer or invocation that is intended to appeal to a supernatural power to inflict harm, evil, doom, misfortune or suffering on someone. Also, a spell refers to the spoken words with magical and evil power that cannot be resisted but negatively influence, control a person's thoughts and dictate his/her actions to behave in a manner that brings misfortune or doom. Curses and spells are evil weapons used by devilish people to cause harm to others. If they are invoked against the destiny of a man or woman, they will frustrate their efforts physically from making progress or achieving breakthroughs. Any person under a curse or a spell needs to undergo intense prayers, fasting and deliverance to break loose from its influence before the person can succeed in a business, a study, a project or a ministry work.

Another spiritual obstacle is negative parental pronouncement as seen in 1 Chronicles 4 verse 9 “And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, because I bare him with sorrow”.

Enemies of your father or mother’s house can be the spiritual barriers to your breakthroughs. A strongman or a strong woman from your father or mother’s house may swear never to see you succeed. You need to deal with them decisively and violently in a spiritual battle by the blood and name of Jesus.

Demons are another group of spiritual obstacles. Demons are invisible spirit beings that are agents of evil, harm, misfortune and distress.

The evil company in the case of Samson was Delilah in Judges 16 verses 15-19 “And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. 16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; 17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother’s womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. 18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. 19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him”.

Delilah came into Samson’s life but unknown to Samson she was an agent of destruction (a waster, a destroyer and a killer) sent to destroy him. I want you to pray like this: All those planted into my life by household enemies to capture and destroy me be wasted by fire in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Get up

What must we do?

In Mark 5 verses 25- 29 “And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague”.

The dangers of failing to get up are more than the benefits of getting up. Those who refused to get up will beg for bread; they will not be able to meet up with the statuses of their contemporaries in society. Also, they will become subordinates to their mates and serve their contemporaries. In addition, they will be stagnant, stink and end up having all kinds of sicknesses and eventually be a victim of spiritual vultures.

The woman with the issue of blood suffered the shame regarding the affliction for twelve years until she came to understand that no one else could heal her except Jesus. She set a target or a goal for her life saying, I will go to Jesus, and if only I could touch the hem of his garment, I shall be made whole. Having decided to touch the garment of Jesus was not sufficient for her healing, but the action

Get up

she took was the icing on the cake. That is, she got up and walked her way through all the barriers (the crowd) to reach and touch the garment of Jesus. Having dreams, vision and desire for greatness are not enough to achieve greatness, not until when you start doing something, acting upon your dreams or vision then you will accomplish success in life. Below are some of those things that you need to do:

Surrender your life to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. According to John 15 verse 5, without Jesus you can do nothing. Acknowledge him as your Lord and personal Saviour.

- Always study the Bible for direction.
- Identify your talent
- Set specific and achievable goals.
- Draw an action plan and pursue it.
- Be positive with your plans
- Believe in your ability
- Commit all plans in the hand of God
- Trust and obey God
- Start from small and never despise the day of little beginning
- Change your attitude towards life.
- Never postpone what you can do today till tomorrow.
- Learn from those who are prospering. Read their success stories, especially autobiographies and biographies of successful people. The secrets of successful people are in their stories.
- Learn to invest and save wisely for the raining days.
- Stop slacking with your gift. Never look down upon your gifts and talents, their products are what others will pay for to make you rich in life. Proverbs 18:16 - A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men. The gift in this context may be equally interpreted as a spiritual gift or talent or skill, and not merely present or material gift alone.

Get up

- Reduce the time you spend sleeping on the bed daily.
- Reduce the time and resources you spend on eating, watching television, movies or home video plays. Remember when you buy Nollywood, Hollywood or Bollywood movies, you are paying for the talents of other people and your money will make them rich, while you have a mere air of satisfaction only.
- Plan your life, starting from each day.
- Have understanding of the season and make adequate provision for every season.
- Always have a positive attitude towards your dreams.
- Separate yourself from those who are lazy.
- Encourage yourself.
- Move with and get advice from those who are great achievers. Proverbs 13:20 - He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.
- Identify your strengths and weaknesses and build on your strengths rather than focus on your weaknesses.
- Break down your plan into smaller parts and start with the least
- Have faith and trust always in God and always acknowledge him in whatever achievements you record.
- Always have a pen and jotter with you to take down points and ideals as they come.
- Never allow others to discourage or mislead you.
- Learn to appreciate yourself, plans and achievements.
- Ask in the name of Jesus John 14 verses 13- 14 “ And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it”.
- Remember to thank or praise God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit always. Pray personal violent and aggressive deliverance prayers for the physical and spiritual obstacles to your breakthroughs to break in the name of Jesus.

Get up

Matthew 17 verse 21 “ Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting”. Also in Matthew 11 verse 12 “And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force”.

Conclusion

I congratulate you for reading this book to the end. My prayer is that God will empower you to get up and break forth from every obstacle on your way and move gloriously into your divine destination. I want you to understand that Mr Flesh (i.e. human body, its physical needs and desires) and the invisible opposing forces will not let you go easily until when you are determined to set yourself free. This can only come by taking positive violent action to get up and with holy and aggressive prayers. You must not stop employing holy aggression in prayers till you achieve what heaven designed you to become. God gave a man the power of choice. It is your choice to either rise to the top or sit on the floor to be trampled upon by others. It is your choice to either pray and be fulfilled or keep quiet and remain a beggar begging for handouts at the gates of your contemporaries. It is your choice to either cry out unto God for help or shed pitiful tears that will not only worsen your case but make you a stepping stone for others to climb to the mountain top. It is your choice to either say no to failure or yes to success. Whatever you decide today will be what you will become tomorrow. If you are ready to get up then pray the following life-changing prayers.
